

private and congressional tours of the White House and worked on arrangements for the President's trips within the United States and abroad, often traveling on such trips, including the famous trip to Ireland.

After the President's tragic assassination, she continued under President Johnson to serve at the White House during that administration. She worked in Senator Robert F. Kennedy's campaign for President, and after that Senator's tragic assassination, worked out of the New York office on his funeral arrangements at St. Patrick's Cathedral and the historic train ride bringing the Senator's body back to Washington.

Later she became Deputy Chief of the U.S. Capitol Guide Service, responsible for the orientation, supervision, and direction of all Capitol guides and tours. In 1985 she was appointed as Chief of Democratic Pages by Speaker O'Neill and has worked with over 2,000 young American Pages from all over the United States, responsible for their training, orientation, guidance, counseling, and familiarization with House procedures and conduct in this Chamber.

We wish her Godspeed, along with her husband, Ray Donnelly, who has been active in planning the Korean War Veterans Memorial being dedicated on July 27 on the Mall.

America could have had no finer daughter in service to this Nation. She has served millions and millions of our citizens as well as visitors from throughout the world.

Thank you, Mrs. Donnelly.

LENNY DONNELLY

(Mr. DINGELL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a fine lady and great friend, who is a shining example and reminder to us all, of the tremendous good a single person can perform in a career of public service.

Lenny Donnelly has served this country with distinction in a career that has spanned 36 years. Early in her career she worked on President Kennedy's White House staff, where one of her duties was scheduling all VIP and congressional tours of the White House. There are still a few left in this Chamber, including myself, who will always be indebted to Lenny for her help in graciously accommodating our scheduling needs.

Lenny has been Chief of Democratic Pages for 10 years and in that time she has become a friend to us all. She has trained, guided, counseled, and cared for over 2,000 pages from all over the United States. Lenny has helped equip a wonderful group of young people with the tools to become part of the next generation of American leaders. Perhaps we will best come to understand her contribution to this institution when in the future, a public leader is asked to name a major influence, and they respond, their time spent as a page under the tutelage of Lenny Donnelly.

Lenny has left her unmistakable mark of expertise on the Page program and she will be sorely missed. She has set a standard of excellence in the field of public service that we should all strive to meet. I wish Lenny the best in all of her future endeavors and am confident she will continue to positively influence the lives of many people in the future. On this, her last working day before retiring, I wish to give Lenny my profound thanks, gratitude, and respect for a job well done.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. MORELLA). This entire body joins the gentlewoman from Ohio [Ms. KAPTUR] in thanking Mrs. Donnelly for the service she has performed. It is very special when you meet somebody who gives such a warm reception, sense of humor, sense of perspective, and sense of propriety, and we wish her well.

PERMISSION FOR SUNDRY COMMITTEES AND THEIR SUBCOMMITTEES TO SIT TODAY DURING THE 5-MINUTE RULE

Mrs. WALDHOLTZ. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the following committees and their subcommittees be permitted to sit today while the House is meeting in the Committee of the Whole House under the 5-minute rule: The Committee on Commerce, the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight, the Committee on the Judiciary, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence.

It is my understanding that the minority has been consulted and that there is no objection to these requests.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. MORELLA). Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Utah?

Mr. DOGGETT. Reserving the right to object, Madam Speaker, the Democratic leadership of each of those committees has been consulted, and we have no objection.

Madam Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Utah?

There was no objection.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2002, DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 1996

Mrs. WALDHOLTZ. Madam Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 194 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 194

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution, the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2002) making appropriations for the Department of Transportation and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. Points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with clause 3 of rule XIII or section 401(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. The bill shall be considered by title rather than by paragraph. Each title shall be considered as read. Points of order against provisions in the bill for failure to comply with clause 2 of rule XXI are waived except as follows: beginning with the colon on page 4, line 17, through "transportation" on page 6, line 2; beginning with "operations" on page 11, line 23, through the comma on line 25; beginning with the figure on page 20, line 12, through the comma before "and" on line 13; beginning with the colon on page 20, line 14, through the citation on line 19; page 27, lines 22 through 25; page 28, lines 3 through 8; page 28, lines 21 through 24; page 29, lines 3 and 4; page 29, lines 7 through 10; page 29, lines 15 and 16; page 29, line 23, through page 30, line 6; page 48, lines 5 through 7; page 51, lines 14 through 22; page 53, lines 1 through 13; page 54, lines 3 through 24; and page 55, line 1, through page 63, line 6. Where points of order are waived against part of a paragraph, points of order against a provision in another part of such paragraph may be made only against such provision and not against the entire paragraph. During consideration of the bill for amendment, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may accord priority in recognition on the basis of whether the Member offering an amendment has caused it to be printed in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose in clause 6 of rule XXIII. Amendments so printed shall be considered as read. It shall be in order at any time to consider the amendment printed in part 2 of the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution. The amendment may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall not be subject to amendment, and not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. All points of order against the amendment printed in part 2 of the report are waived. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentlewoman from Utah [Mrs. WALDHOLTZ] is recognized for 1 hour.

Mrs. WALDHOLTZ. Madam Speaker, for the purpose of debate only, I yield the customary 30 minutes to the gentleman from California [Mr. BEILEN-SON], pending which I yield myself such time as I may consume.

During consideration of this resolution, all time yielded is for the purposes of debate only.

Madam Speaker, House Resolution 194 is an open rule, providing for consideration of H.R. 2002, the Transportation appropriations bill for fiscal year 1996 with 1 hour of general debate.

I will be offering an amendment to the rule that resolves concerns between the Transportation Committee and the Appropriations Committee. The
